RECAPITULATION.

Know-nothings and republicans voting for Banks	110
Republican know-nothings voting against Banks	8
National know-nothings voting for Fuller	35
Democrats voting for Richardson and Orr	80

Mr. Miller, of Missouri, and Mr. Childs, of New York, absent since the beginning of the session; Mr. Trumbull's seat vacant. A number of times within the last four weeks the number recorded above as having voted for Mr. Banks could have elected him; and if to these are added the republican know-nothings who vote for Mr. Pennington, it would give to the side of the House supporting Mr. Banks a clear majority of the whole number, even with an unusual attendance.

This list has been prepared with great care, and is believed to be accurate. If any gentleman is erroneously classed it will give us pleasure to make the correction. Wash. Union.

CARROLL HOUSE,
CHESTERVILLE, S. C.

THAT LARGE AND SPLENDID THREE STORY Building on the east side of Chester Depot, is now open for the accommodation of persons travelling by the Cars, or otherwise. The Proprietor is well aware, that nothing short of a well-kept house, will induce custom to this so recently gotten up; and although very solicitous of patronage, he refrains from those thousand and one promises which have been made, only to be broken by many of his "illustrious predecessors."
He confidently hopes, that he will be sustained, and upon trial give that satisfaction and accomodation to the wearied traveller, that will send him on his way rejoicing.

GOOD ADVICE ABOUT PIANOS!—MUSIC IN A HOUSE!!—A house without Music, is like a Nursery without Children, silent, gloomy, and desolate.—Music is the harmonic soul of life breathed or suggested everywhere in nature, and only absent from the lips and souls of those who are "fit for treason, stratagems and spoils." So, young ladies, insist at once upon your Papa buying a Piano from E. P. NASH, of Petersburg, although you may not be able to play more than a Polka, a Negro Melody, and Days of Absence, on it.
The above is good advice. You can always find about 40 select Pianos at the lowest prices, with all the various styles and patterns, at E. P. NASH'S Piano-Forte Wareroom, 33 Sycamore, corner of Bank street, Petersburg, Va.

RICHMOND IN BY-GONE DAYS; BEING REMiniscences of An Old Citizen.
Extract of a letter from Washington Irving, Esq., to the author of "Richmond in By-Gone Days," dated July 1856:
"Your little volume was particularly acceptable to me. "Richmond in by-gone days" was Richmond as I knew it in the days of my youth, nearly fifty years since. Every page of your volume brought up some delightful recollection of scenes, and characters, long since passed away; for at Richmond at the time of my exit, there was a rare assemblage of the talent and beauty of Virginia, and the impressions I received then have ever made "the Old Dominion dear to me."

A CHANCE TO MAKE MONEY.—I HAVE recently obtained possession of the magnificent picture representing the death-bed scene of the venerable John Wesley. This large and imposing picture was painted by O. P. Copeland, Esq., expressly for exhibition, and sold by him some time ago to G. D. Weekly, from whom I have obtained it. I now offer it for sale on very reasonable terms, and feel assured that a proper person could by exhibiting it realize a handsome sum of money. The picture is about 10 by 15 feet in dimensions, and represents the great founder of Methodism, a few moments before his death, surrounded by some eighteen or twenty of his distinguished friends and followers, all as large as life. RALEIGH AND GASTON RAILROAD.

The President and Directors of the Raleigh & Gaston Railroad Company beg to present to the Annual Meeting of the Stockholders the following Report:

It is a source of much satisfaction to us to be able to state that, whilst nearly every mail brings intelligence of accidents on Rail roads, attended with injury to person and property, and frequently with great loss of life, our Road has been exempt from those casualties. The enviable and deserved reputation which it has acquired, in this respect, it should be our earnest and unremitted effort to maintain unimpaired,—always bearing in mind that freedom from casualties begets too much confidence, and that it is therefore the more necessary to impress upon the minds of those in the employment of the Company the fact that, strict obedience to orders and a constant vigilance are necessary to obviate future dangers and preserve, unimpaired, the far-extended reputation of our Road for safety and comfort. It has won the confidence of the public, both near and far, and we are now beginning to realize the benefits resulting from it. In this connection, we take pleasure in commending to your favorable consideration the superintendents and subordinate officers of the Company; whose attention to their duties has been exemplary.

We will now call your attention to the Treasurer's Annual Report of the operations of the Road for the last fiscal year ending 30th September; and, upon reviewing the entire statement, and considering the many unfavorable circumstances which have conspired to make this year one of peculiar hardship, affecting the usual sources of income, as well as involving much expenditure of an extraordinary character, we may well be satisfied.

It will be seen, by reference to this Report, that the entire receipts of the Road, for the year ending 30th September, 1856, have been, including the balance on hand on the first day of the present fiscal year, $253,548 86

Out of which have been disbursed:

For ordinary and current expenses,	$ 98,441 76
For extraordinary do.	129,746 44
		$228,188 20
Leaving a balance on 1st Oct. of		$ 25,360 66

It will be seen that there is a diminution in the receipts of the Road for the past year, both from passengers and freight. This is owing to several causes.

During the year ending 30th Sept. 1855, there was received for transportation of Iron for the North-Carolina and Roanoke Valley Railroad Companies, the sum of $15,250; the whole of which was carried to the credit of that year, whereas a large portion was done during the present fiscal year, for which it is rightfully entitled to credit. The extreme severity of the winter (unexampled for many years past) operated very prejudicially on all Railroads in our country,—disabling engines, suspending operations on the Road beds, and diminishing travel as well as trade during its continuance. This has been succeeded by a drought and other causes, destroying the crops, and rendering it, to a considerable extent, a matter of necessity to retain the wheat usually sent to market (that crop itself being a short one) to aid in furnishing food for the people at home.

The income of the Road was very materially affected by these untoward circumstances. But, notwithstanding all this, it will be perceived that, after deducting the iron hauled for the N. C. & R. V. R. R. Co's, alluded to above, the ordinary receipts of the Road are about the same as last year. The nett profits of the Road, after deducting ordinary expenses, have been within a small fraction of 8 per cent. on the capital stock of the Company.

The completion of the N. C. Railroad, so creditable to the liberality and enterprise of the State, has constituted an era in the history of such works and opened to the markets of the East a most fertile section of country hitherto, to a great extent, unconnected with the markets on tide water. Much of the best country penetrated by that Road has heretofore traded to Charleston and Columbia, and will now find an outlet farther North. Wheat and flour, the great staples of the Yadkin country, find excellent markets by going over our Roads; and merchants and others along the line of that Road will receive from New York and other Northern Cities their goods and supplies by this route. The establishment of a through ticket from Weldon by our Road and the connecting Roads between this and Augusta and Charleston, has been effected within the last few weeks, after an effort of 8 or 10 months to accomplish this object; and will, we doubt not, be attended with a large increase of travel and income. The higher, more healthy, and interesting region of country, through which the traveller who takes this route will pass; and the substantial manner in which these Roads are built, must commend it to the travelling public, and will ensure a fair division, if not the larger portion of the through travel. The same facilities will, we hope, be soon extended to New York, Philadelphia and Baltimore, and to New Orleans. A through freight has also been recently established with the N. C. R. R. Co., and with the Seaboard and Petersburg R. R. Co., by which freight may now carried from Petersburg and Portsmouth to Charlotte, or any other point west of Raleigh (and in the opposite direction) without transhipment. This has been in operation but a short time; and, if the contracts are fully carried out by the assenting parties, must result in great advantages to all. Taking all these things into consideration and recollecting that every pound of freight taking our Road at its Southern terminus pays on every mile of it, or nearly so, we think we may look with confidence to the advantages to be hereafter derived from our connection with that Road.

It is proper to state that application has been made within the last few months requesting a called meeting of the stockholders of the Co., with the view of considering the expediency of authorizing a loan to pay for the improvements on the Road, and declaring a dividend as usual. The Board, after mature and respectful consideration, declined taking any action themselves in the matter.

The Roanoke Valley Railroad, intersecting ours near Ridgway Depot, and tapping the fertile Valley of the Roanoke River, at the junction of the Dan and Staunton, is now in operation, we are pleased to state, under the sole charge of its own officers, (our contract with them for running their Road having expired about the first of last April.) A warehouse has been erected at the junction of the two Roads at joint expense, and the produce we are receiving from that source, a large portion of which has heretofore sought its way to market down the river, makes it an important feeder to our Road.

In response to a resolution adopted at your last meeting in regard to merging the two roads into one, we deem it inexpedient at this time to take any action.

Having received satisfactory assurances from the President and Directors of the Petersburg R. R. Co., (into whose corporation the Greenville and Roanoke R. R. Co., has been merged since your last annual meeting) of their determination and intention to rebuild the latter Road in a permanent manner with a substantial iron rail, we have taken steps for the reconstruction of the bridge over the Roanoke river at Gaston—having contracted for the timbers and irons, and also with a competent bridge-builder who has now commenced operations. When this bridge is completed, which it is proposed shall be done at the earliest moment, and the Petersburg Co. shall have finished relaying their Road with heavy iron, it will reduce the time between Petersburg and Raleigh to about 6 or 7 hours, and thus be decidedly advantageous.

In pursuance of the recommendation of your last meeting of the Finance and Inspection Committee, the Board of Directors have made contracts for the filling up of the trestle-work and the building of permanent bridges and culverts between Weldon and Gaston, which contracts are now being executed in a satisfactory manner; and we hope will be completed during the present year. Owing to the imperfect manner in which the work was done before it came into our possession, these repairs will be very expensive.

The old timbers of the Gaston Bridge may be either sold or reserved for the purpose of rebuilding the warehouses on our line, many of which need repairs, if not entire reconstruction.

The sinking fund amounts to $15,700, of which the sum of $2,700 has been appropriated during the present year.

There was at the time of your last annual meeting an item in your accounts of $9,224 05, as due by the N. C. R. R. Co., and considered as cash or funds available. It is proper to state that the N. C. R. R. Co., had, then, an account against this Company for upwards of $5,000—reducing, of course, the above amount by that sum. A settlement has since taken place with that Company, with the exception of two or three items in their account, which yet remain to be adjusted.

There was on hand on 30th Sept. 7490 cords of wood—paid for.

Your Bridges have undergone some repairs this year, and are in good condition, and should always receive that attention which their importance demands.

We have built and repaired six Culverts, besides other masonry of a miscellaneous character. Good wood-sheds have been erected at Huntsville and Forestville Depots; also houses for the watchmen at Cedar Creek bridge and Jeffries' bridge, besides others at Weldon and the junction, for the hands of the Company, and repairs to the ware-houses, water-stations, &c. Your Road from Warrenton to Gaston is thoroughly ditched; from Warrenton to Raleigh the ditches require cleaning out.

Efforts have been made to participate in the advantages of the Railroad shed at Weldon, but have been ineffectual.

We have taken an exact inventory of the rolling stock of the Company on hand on 30th Sept., which is as follows: 12 Engines, viz: Alamance, Franklin, Wake, Halifax, Warren, Graham, Raleigh, Granville, Tornado, Clarksville, Tempest, and Volcano. They are all in running order, though some few may require slight repairs. The Raleigh, Wake, and Franklin, have been thoroughly over hauled and renewed within the last year, at an estimated cost of about $1,600 each, and made, in every respect, better than they were when they left the manufacturer's hands, as all the defects have been remedied.

Considerable repairs have also been done to the "Graham." Eight new box cars have been built—two passenger coaches thoroughly overhauled or nearly rebuilt, as well as three mail cars and the running works of three tenders built. There are 73 (8 wheel) and 3 (4 wheel) box cars; 32 flats, 5 good passenger coaches, 3 inferior ditto, and 3 post office cars—all in running order.—20 gravel cars and 9 hand cars for the section masters on the Road.

The following have been purchased and added to the machinery in the shops, viz: One turning lathe, one planer, and one bolt cutter.

We have caused to be prepared a statement of the receipts at each Depot on the Road, as well as to and from the N. C. Railroad. As a large portion of the latter, however, is included in the receipts at the Raleigh Depot, this statement cannot be relied upon as embracing all the receipts from that Road.

VALUE OF FOOD FOR CATTLE.

There is no certain data as yet by which a very certain comparative value of the different kinds of feed can be given. It is true that some very excellent tables have been given by different chemists, who have labored long and diligently in analyzing the substances named, and ascertaining the ingredients of which they are composed, and their proportions in every hundred pounds.

These are undoubtedly correct, and show the comparative amounts of this or that ingredient; and hence a general estimate may be made of their comparative value as feed. It must be remembered, however, that these estimates are only approximations to the truth, and not real truths. The reason is, because the stomachs of different animals are formed differently, on purpose to draw nourishment for its owner from materials different from what another one would. The stomach of an ox and that of a horse are different. The horse or the ox will live very well on hay, but the ox will do better on some kinds of poor hay than the horse. They both fatten on the meal of Indian corn, but neither of them could live on meal alone. Their stomachs are made to be distended with bulky material, and if they do not receive this stimulus of distension, they languish. Hence, when we say that sixty pounds of Indian corn are as good as one hundred pounds of hay, and will yield them as much nourishment, some allowance must be made, for it will not do to say that if you supply them with as much nourishment from a given amount of corn as they would derive from a corresponding amount of hay—you need not feed them with hay at all. A long series of well-conducted experiments is necessary, in feeding the animals themselves, to establish the true, unmistakable comparative value of different species of food. Something of the kind has been done, but not enough to establish what is desired. As it is, we can only give our correspondent the tables as established by chemists in their analysis—and we will here copy that of Boussingault—by which it is stated that one hundred pounds of hay may be replaced by

Bran,	85 lbs.	Peas,	27 lbs.
Oats,	68 lbs.	Potatoes,	280 lbs
Barley,	65 lbs.	Carrots,	382 lbs.
Indian Corn,	59 lbs.	Wheat Straw,	426 lbs
Rye,	77 lbs.	Oat Straw,	383 lbs.
Linseed Cake,	22 lbs.	Barley Straw,	460 lbs
Beans,	28 lbs.	Pea Straw,	64 lbs

The editor of the Genessee Farmer, (Dr. Lee) who is exceedingly well "posted up," as the saying is, in these matters, says there can be no doubt that one hundred pounds of ground corn meal, mixed with the required bulk of cut straw, will be of more avail in sustaining animal life, during the winter, than any other food that can be obtained at the same price.

In commenting upon the above table, the same writer observes, that if this table of equivalents can be relied upon, it appears that one hundred pounds of hay are equal to four hundred and twenty-six pounds of wheat straw, and that twenty-two pounds of oil cake are equal to one hundred pounds of hay, sixty-eight pounds of oats, eighty-five pounds of bran, &c. Bousingault found that his seventeen horses, averaging one thousand and seventy pounds each in weight, ate and did well on a ration of thirty three pounds of hay per day, working eight hours regularly every day. To obtain the same amount of nutritious food in straw, a horse must eat one hundred and sixty-five pounds of the straw per day—a feat which he is incapable of performing. But if we give him thirty pounds of straw, (equal to six pounds of hay,) five pounds of oil-cake, (equal to twenty-two pounds of hay,) and three pounds of corn meal, (equal to five pounds of hay,) he will receive the same amount of nourishment, and in about the same bulk, while the cost of wintering him in this way would be considerably reduced.

By careful studying, says he, the prices of substances used as food, and their relative value, most farmers may save considerable expense in keeping their animals, not by stinting them, (no farmer can afford that,) but by using food which contains the most nutriment for them at a given cost.

MR. GALES.—We observed that, at a late banquet at the President's house, Mr. Gales, the veteran editor of the National Intelligencer, was treated with marked, and, we may add, deserved distinction.—Mr. Gales has been for half a century at the head of the newspaper press of America. In ability, sagacity, industry and judgment, he has had no superior among the journalists of America. His paper is entitled to the still higher merit of candor, dignity and decorum. In its political discussions it has uniformly appealed to the reason, and never to the prejudices or passions of men. Mr. Gales is not only an editor, but a statesman, far sighted, well-informed, and of liberal and comprehensive views. He is much better fitted for a seat in the Senate or the Cabinet than many who have figured in those positions. As a man, he is distinguished for generosity of nature and unaffected single-mindedness. We presume that for no one connected with the American press is there so universal a feeling of respect and affection, as for Joseph Gales, editor of the National Intelligencer.

ARTIFICIAL FISH.—There was a new feature at the Agricultural Fair at Cleveland, Ohio—a show of fish raised artificially. The are chiefly spotted brook trout, from six months to two years, old, and were in a large tank with glass sides, supplied with a running stream of ice water. Doctors Garlich and Arckley, who furnish the exhibition, have quite a "fish raising" about two miles from Cleveland.—In the pond are thousands of fish, principally trout, all raised by artificial means.

By industry and economy, we prosper.

The South as It Is.

(BY A SOUTHERN MAN.)

MR. EDITOR:—Will you permit a citizen of South Carolina, though a native of New Jersey, to occupy a portion of your columns, not in discussing the merits of the Presidential candidates, but in endeavoring to vindicate the South from the false and slanderous charges which have been so lavishly bestowed upon her?

Your orators charge upon the South that the laboring man is degraded below the level of the slave; and, consequently, has neither social nor political influence. I can speak for the State and city where I reside, and I do not hesitate to pronounce this allegation to be absolutely untrue. Nowhere in the United States has the working man a fairer chance for social and political distinction than in South Carolina; nowhere in the North has the working mechanic a higher position or greater political influence than in the city of Charleston; nowhere in our great confederacy of States do the people look with more jealousy on those who would claim hereditary distinction than in the State where I reside.

To prove this let me cite to you some facts; your City Council is composed of sixteen members, and I may safely compare these gentlemen with any other sixteen men in any other City Council on this continent. They are all of them men of character, of intelligence, of high and honorable sentiment, of fair standing in point of property, and above suspicion in point of integrity.

All of them are working men, who pursue some occupation for their own benefit, and whose gratuitous devotion to the public must involve, to a considerable extent, their own private interests.

Six of these men are practical mechanics who, in any company, would glory in taking rank among the working classes.

One of them may be seen every day in the most public street in Charleston, with his coat off, and his sleeves rolled up, and his apron on, making or mending boots and shoes for his customers with his own hands.

And yet this gentleman has a standing in our community, and an influence, both social and political, which will compare favoriably with that of any man amongst us.

It would be folly for me to deny that there are those amongst us, who undervalue and look down with contempt on the working man. Let me ask you, Mr. Editor, if such men are not to be found everywhere. Wealth and luxury operate at the South just as they do at the North, and occasionally may be found a man who lives a life of idleness, and looks down on the working man.

But with us, as with you, this class of men is small, and perfectly powerless as regards their political influence.

With us, as with you, the industrious, frugal and honest man attains that rank in the social scale to which he is entitled, and which, if I were to make any comparison between the two sections, he will reach in a shorter time, and will meet with fewer obstacles at the South than at the North.

I claim, Mr. Editor, to have a better knowledge on this point than those public speakers, who have never visited the Southern States, or who have merely passed through our country without taking the time necessary to form a correct opinion. I have resided in South Carolina thirty-three years, and claim to have better opportunities of knowing and understanding the condition of the South than those who have merely passed through it. Believe me, you are decived and cheated when you are told that the working man, at the South, occupies a position, in the least degree less reputable than he does anywhere on the habitable globe.

But, Mr. Editor, there is another point to which I would call the attention of your readers. Your orators would have you believe that the South is steeped in poverty and crime as a necessary consequence of having the institution of slavery.

You are called upon to institute comparisons between certain free States and certain slave States, and to note the vast difference between them.

Permit me to ask you to institute the same sort of comparison between certain free States and other free States, and you will observe the same inequality. Compare New York with any of the old States, and you will find she has outstripped them all. But compare New York with Georgia, and the slave State has greatly the advantage in the increase of population since 1790; while South-Carolina has kept even with New Jersey, and North Carolina with New Hampshire, and Virginia is not far behind Massachusetts.

But why, Mr. Editor, are these comparisons made? Do your orators wish to make the North despise the South as weak, feeble, imbecile and contemptible? Do they wish to create ill will and animosity? Do they mean to get up such a state of feeling between the two sections as will make the Union, under our present Constitution, no longer desirable?

Can two opposite sections live in peace and harmony while they are hating each other, and despising each other?

Let me beg my friends and acquaintances in New Jersey [and I trust I have many], to consult the dictates of common sense, and laugh to scorn the efforts of demagogues and professed politicians to weaken the attachment between the slave-holding States.

We are entitled to your respect; we ask nothing but our equal rights under the Constitution of our fathers, and we would be unworthy of an association with you if we were to accept of any inferior position in this Confederacy.

Yours respectfully,
JAS. J. McCARTER,
of Charleston, S. C.

[It is almost unnecessary for us to add that Mr. McCarter, the writer of the above, is well known throughout Sussex county, and held in high estimation here by men of all parties. We hope those who have listened to the insane ravings of those twin judges, Marsh and Waterman, will calmly read the letter of Mr. McCarter.

Editor New Jersey Herald.

The Democrats had a fine time of it here last Tuesday. It being court week, a large crowd was attracted, chiefly to listen to an exposition of political parties as they exist; the speakers being Hon. Thomas Ruffin and Dr. Ward, of Green. The Doctor led off in a speech of nearly two hours, during which he was listened to with the liveliest interest. He reviewed the whole political area in a masterly manner;—applied his dissecting knife to Sam's carcass, laying open every joint and muscle and artery from horn to hoof of that interesting animal—told his age—his origin which was of British prejudice against republicanism since the days of 76—his hatred of Catholics of still older date, as exhibited by English rule, over Catholic Ireland for centuries—proved that Catholics and Old Side Baptists were the only denominations that did not persecute when they had power, but extended toleration to all sects, as exhibited by the history of the one in Maryland and the other in Rhode Island—that they never dragged politics into the pulpit nor howled politics in the thoroughfares to the disgrace of Christ's religion, but minded their own sacred calling to the exclusion of every thing else. We regret that our space will not permit us to do full justice to the Doctor's speech, which abounded in fine points, was well delivered and altogether very effective.

Hon. Thos. Ruffin then arose, and while he spoke briefly, he showed more than his usual power. He gave a rapid but clear sketch of the cause of the present agitation throughout the country—traced it to its abolition source—showed how the South had been a unit on the Kansas question—how Southern K. Nothings could find no flaw in it until pointed out to them by their abolition masters in the North. But we cannot follow Mr. Ruffin throughout. Suffice it to say that his address was bold, denunciatory and conclusive, alternating between a clear argumentation, and withering sarcasm. In alluding to the late fusion of parties in the North against Democracy, and to the strife which has grown up among the allies since their defeat, Mr. Ruffin was truly rich. The Fremont and Fillmore quarrel he compared to a couple of Jackasses with their tails lashed together, that were trying to kick each other to pieces. The figure is at once truthful and admirably expressive.

MR. CLAY—MR. BUCHANAN.

Many of those who aided in setting Mr. Clay aside in 1840, when he could have been elected, are now professedly so jealous of his fame that they persecute Mr. Buchanan on a matter concerning which, Mr. Clay, both by words and deeds, declared himself entirely satisfied. They are more tender Mr. Clay's honor than he was himself—thus reflecting upon him as being insensible to what was due to his character. They thus become his traducers, while assuming to be the especial guardians of his fame.

The following letter is from as honorable a gentleman as has appeared in our national councils. It needs no comments:

[From the Washington Union.]

WASHINGTON CITY, Oct. 29, 1856.

Messrs. Editors:—Permit me now, on the eve of the most important Presidential election which has ever occurred in the history of our country, while on a brief visit here, to communicate through the medium of your paper, a few facts and circumstances within my own personal knowledge, having in my estimation, an important bearing in reference to the alleged connexion of Mr. Buchanan with the charge of bargain and intrigue against Mr. Clay, with respect to the election of Mr. Adams.

This allegation having been perseveringly circulated against Mr. Buchanan by his political opponents, and especially in the State of Maryland, with the view of influencing the conservative and national portion of Mr. Clay's friends, it is due to truth and justice, to the dead as well as the living, that the country should be informed of every circumstance calculated to place it in a correct point of view.

The facts to which I allude are these: At the session of Congress of 1834 or that immediatly succeeding, I am not certain which, the late Vice President King, Mr. Buchanan and myself were invited by the late Senator Kent, of Maryland, to pass a social evening with him at his boarding-house in Washington, informing us at the time that no other persons besides Mr. Clay would be present. Col. King was too much indisposed to attend. Mr. Buchanan and myself complied with the invitation, and had the pleasure of meeting Mr. Clay as we had anticipated.

No gentleman, with whom it was ever my fortune to have associated, was more bland in manners, more interesting in conversation, and more agreeable in deportment, than Mr. Clay on that occasion. Towards Mr. Buchanan he was especially courteous and respectful. Now, the inference is irresistible to my mind, distinguished as Mr. Clay was for his frank, open, and manly character, that if he had entertained impressions that Mr. Buchanan had been instrumental in injuring his reputation, he never would have met and treated him in the social and friendly manner, evinced on that occasion.

Few men, at that time, who were actors on the public theatre, probably possessed more of the confidence of Mr. Clay, or were better informed of his opinions respecting men, than Senator Kent. Those acquainted with the latter gentleman, known for his genial qualities as a man and his bearing as a gentleman, could not believe that he would so far have forgoten what was due to himself as well as the gentlemen who were his guests on that occasion of a mere private conversational party, as to have brought them into association, if such an impression had existed in the mind of Mr. Clay.

I make this statement with no view of invading the sanctity which properly belongs to the associations of gentlemen, but simply with the view to correct what I believe to be very erroneous impressions attempted to be made in regard to the relations of the two distinguished gentlemen to whom I have alluded.

Very respectfully,
BEDFORD BROWN.

A NOBLE LETTER.

The following manly and patriotic letter was read at the great Democratic Rally in Richmond, Va., a few evenings ago, amidst enthusiastic applause:

BOSTON, Oct. 29, 1856.

GENTLEMEN:—Your letter of the 9th instant, "inviting me, in behalf of the Democracy of Richmond, to speak on the national issues involved in the Presidential canvass," came to my home while I was in the field with the gallant Democracy of Pennsylvania, and since my return I have been hoping to arrange my business in the Circuit Court so as to meet my friends at the South. Deeply I regret that I am compelled to forego one of the most earnest wishes of my heart, to stand upon the soil of Virginia and commune with her true men in that fraternal spirit which, for fifty years, has united the Democracy North and South in an invincible brotherhood—never conquered by federalism, and never to be conquered by sectionalism.

Proud indeed should I have been to stand on such a spot in such a presence, and open to you the heart of a Northern Democrat, uttering there just what we utter here, the national sentiments of brotherly love, of respect for the rights of the South, of fidelity to the Constitution, of reverence for the Union, which abjure as moral treason all "geographical discriminations," and make us one people with one faith, one creed and one destiny, for the advancement of this great family of Republics to the final development of an empire of locally independent and nationally united States, covering the whole continent.

That is the great mission of the Democratic party, and wisely has it resolved that, to accomplish this mission, there shall forever be, as there ever has been, for its unchanging platform, the only true basis of Union and expansion—perfect equality in the old and new States, and perfect equality in the enjoyment of the common Territory belonging alike to all the States.

The country is now in transition to the consummation of this great principle, as a practical and permanent adjustment of the one disturbing sectional and local issue in national legislation. All our troubles have grown out of that first departure from this fundamental doctrine of the original compact, the "Missouri Compromise." By that unwise act Congress, for the first time, assumed a power not given in the Constitution, to legislate concerning the domestic institutions and the property relations of the people in States and Territories.

The tendency to centralization at the North led the Federal party to seize upon that false assumption of constitutional power which Jefferson and other Democratic statesmen clearly foresaw and deplored, but did not sufficiently resist at the time of its innovation.

When the Federal and Whig parties at the North merged themselves in Abolitionism, they sought the same centralization through the agitation of slavery in Congress. Hence the assumptions of "Free Soilism," and finally the arrogance of "Black Republicanism," which has resolved itself into an attempted conspiracy of sixteen States in the Union to defraud or subjugate fifteen other States in the Union, and rob them, first of their slave property, which the North imported and sold to them for twenty years; and then, secondly, wrest from them all the common territory belonging to the Union.

This is the battle national men are now fighting with sectional men at the North; and if the South will be confiding, and co-operating and manly toward us, we shall win the victory on our own soil, and make it, in truth, "free soil" by reducing to its miserable minority of mere fanatical abolitionism the geographical party which, by the nomination of a sectional candidate for the Presidency, seemed to threaten the peace and perpetuity of the Union. We believe we see the dawn of that victory now breaking, and we have our chaplets ready woven to crown alike the noble brows of Virginia and Pennsylvania—Virginia for her truth to the great Jeffersonian doctrine of religious liberty—and Pennsylvania for her faith to the Union—Virginia for breasting and forcing back the tide of bigotry in the form of Know-Nothingism—and Pennsylvania for repelling the black flood of abolitionism, in its form of assumed Republicanism.

Grandly will these two States move together in the column that is carrying onward the election of Mr. Buchanan, as the conservator of our peace. With that consummation let us bring about a still more cordial Union between South and North, and fix firmly into the structure of our Constitutional polity, the only safe and conservative doctrine for this Union to live by and grow by—"NON INTERFERENCE WITH SLAVERY BY CONGRESS, IN STATE OR TERRITORY OR THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA."

Very truly, yours,
B. F. HALLETT.

COMMON SCHOOLS.

Office of the Literary Board,
RALEIGH, Nov. 3d, 1856.

The President and Directors of the Literary Fund having made distribution of the net income of said Fund for the year 1856, among the several Counties of the State for Common Schools, have directed the following tabular statement to be published, showing the Spring and Fall Distribution to each County, and the sum total distributed during the year.

The amount of the Fall Distribution will be paid to the persons entitled to the same, on application to the Treasury Department.

The Counties of Jackson, Madison, Yadkin, Polk, Harnet and Wilson will receive their portion out of the amount distributed from the Counties out of which they were respectively formed.

It will be observed that certain amounts are deducted from the portion of School Fund due to Counties having pupils at the N. C. Institution for the Deaf, Dumb and Blind, those Counties not having paid the tax for their pupils to the Public Treasurer of the State as now required by law.

The Board respectfully call the attention of the Justices of the several Counties, from the shares of which deductions are made for pupils at the Institution for the Deaf, Dumb and Blind, to the law requiring them to levy a tax for the support of their said pupils, and that they are liable to indictment for not doing so. Lindsey's Double Acting Rotary Force and Lift Pump.

THIS PUMP HAS BEEN JUST PATENTED IN America and England, and far excels any pump heretofore invented; its peculiarities are simplicity, power, and cheapness. Its simplicity; there is nothing about it but iron and cast metal, and it can be taken apart and put up by any one, and will last for an age. It has the power to raise water hundred of feet, with the extra expense of gearing at the side, and the price of pipe. Water rises in it by hand 100 feet per minute! for cheapness; a No 1 Pump (for all ordinary purposes) complete, and fifty feet of pipe, costs but $30! The handle at the top, turns the pipe and Pump, and every revolution fills the cylinder twice, affording an abundant supply of water with the least possible expense and labor. It is peculiarly adapted to deep wells, railroad stations, &c. Practical and scientific men pronounce it as without an equal, for all that is here claimed for it. The Scientific American, after seeing it in operation, says: "This Pump is very simple in construction, not liable to get out of order, durable, easily operated and economical: we regard it as an excellent improvement." Circulars with an accurate drawing and full description sent free of charge to all parts of the country. No 1, has a one inch pipe; No 2, 1¼ inches; No 3, 1½ inches; and the prices $30, $42, $51; the No 2 and 3 are designed for very deep wells, rail-road stations, &c., where much water is required. The subscriber is the general agent for the sale of these Pumps to all parts of the world, and exclusive agent for New-York. Orders must be accompanied by the case, and should be explicit as to the kind of Pump wanted, depth of well, shipping address, &c. They will meet prompt attention. A Pump and Pipe weighs about 170 lbs. No charge for boxing or cartage. Wells over 25 ft. should have extra gearing; which costs from $3 to $8 in proportion to depth.

This Pump is two feet in diameter, does not throw, but must stand in the water, and is not subject to rust or freezing.

Presidential Election—The Result.

At the time of writing this—Friday 12 M.—our intelligence is by no means full, yet we have enough to justify us in the opinion that Mr. Buchanan has been triumphantly elected by the people. The telegraphic line was down at various points on Wednesday, so that no news was received either here or at Petersburg or Richmond the day after the election. We give below a despatch dated the 5th, and one the 6th—and we expect another before going to press:

WASHINGTON, Nov. 5.

Editors Standard: All the New England States and New York have gone for Fremont. New Jersey, Pennsylvania, and Delaware have gone for Buchanan. The news from Indiana, Kentucky, and Tennessee looks well. The Democrats have elected twelve members of Congress in New York, and the member of Congress in Delaware.

Buchanan certainly elected.

Editors Standard: The indications are that all the New England States and New York have gone for Fremont. Pennsylvania, New Jersey, Louisiana, Kentucky, Illinois, and Indiana for Buchanan. The returns from Ohio and Wisconsin are favorable.—Maryland has gone for Fillmore. Virginia largely Democratic.

Buchanan undoubtedly elected.

Mr. Buchanan has certainly carried the following States: New Jersey, 7 votes, Pennsylvania 27, Indiana 13, Illinois 11, Delaware 3, Virginia 15, North Carolina 10, South-Carolina 8, Georgia 10, Florida 3, Alabama 9, Mississippi 7, Texas 4, Missouri 9, Arkansas 4—making 140 votes. And he has, in all probability, carried California, 4 votes, Louisiana 6, Tennessee 12, and Kentucky 12—making in all 174 votes, being a majority of 52, and 25 more than necessary to elect him. It is possible also that he has carried Ohio and Wisconsin, which would increase his vote to 202.

LATEST BY TELEGRAPH.

BUCHANAN CERTAINLY ELECTED.

The following despatches, received just as we go to press, show that Mr. Buchanan has been elected by the people:

WASHINGTON, Nov. 7, 1856.

Editors Standard: Fremont has carried all the Northern States, except Indiana, Illinois, Pennsylvania, and New Jersey. Illinois in doubt. Maryland for Fillmore, and the other Southern States for Buchanan, except Louisiana and Florida, from which not much has been heard.

RICHMOND, Va., Nov. 7, 1856.

Editors Standard: Kentucky has gone for Buchanan by ten thousand majority, Tennessee by ten thousand, Indiana by twelve thousand, Louisiana by fifteen hundred. Illinois has gone for Fremont by ten thousand.

Buchanan is certainly elected.

Mr. Buchanan's vote, according to the above, will be about 163, Fremont's 125, and Fillmore's 8.

Wake County.

We give below the official vote of Wake County by precincts, compared with the vote in August last.

The result in Wake is highly gratifying, and very creditable to her indomitable Democracy. It rained and stormed all day, yet we have given Mr. Buchanan the largest majority ever cast for any candidate in the County, and have made a gain over Gov. Bragg's vote in August last of 114 votes. Compared with the vote in August, the Democratic vote has fallen off 221, and the K. N. vote 335—showing a total falling off of 556 votes. The Democrats of the County generally have done well; but those of the Joel Jones, Oak Grove, Eagle Rock, Forestville, Simms', Nat. Jones, and Raleigh precincts deserve special commendation for having increased their vote over that cast in August. A number of persons, formerly Whigs and Know Nothings, voted for Mr. Buchanan. We record this fact with pleasure, and we trust hereafter to have their co-operation in the great cause of the Constitution and the Union. They will never regret their course.

MITCHELL'S DISSECTED MAPS.—Our thanks to Mr. Turner, of this City, for one of Mitchell's "Dissected Maps" of the Southern States. But what, you will ask, is a "Dissected Map?" It is a map on pasteboard, cut up into various pieces; and the child is amused, and its ingenuity excited, by putting the pieces together. These maps combine instruction with amusement, and will no doubt be very acceptable to children. The plan is spoken of most approvingly by many of the public journals.

RALEIGH AND GASTON ROAD.—Attention is invited to the well written and very satisfactory Report, in to-day's Standard, of the President and Directors to the stockholders of the Raleigh & Gaston Railroad Company.

NORTH-CAROLINA ELECTION NEWS.

We give below extracts from letters from various Counties, received up to the time of going to press. The Buchanan victory in North Carolina is a signal and glorious one,—his majority cannot, we think, be less than TWELVE THOUSAND, and but for the storm on the day of the election it would have been twenty thousand.

Rowan County.

SALISBURY, Nov. 5, 1856.

"Enclosed I send you the official vote of this County,—The county precincts did well for Buchanan, but the vote in town fell off nearly 400 compared with the August election. The creeks around town were so full that many Democrats could not get to the polls. * * We have gained 138 votes at two precincts in Stanly County. We have gained in Davie, Cabarrus, Mecklenburg, Davidson and Forsythe."

Alamance.

GRAHAM, Nov. 5, 1856.

"Bragg's majority in Alamance was 271. Notwithstanding the greatly decreased vote, we lack but six votes of sustaining the August majority. This we think is admirable, considering the bad weather. The water courses were so high that many could not get to the polls. A fair day would have increased our majority at least one hundred."

Orange.

A friend, who sends us the gratifying result in Orange, says, "Glory enough for four years!—Orange is all right." True—Orange has done well—a Democratic gain of 88.

A correspondent at Chapel Hill writes us as follows: "All here, who were capable of voting, or of influencing votes, and who took part, were up and doing early in the morning. Notwithstanding the inclemency of the weather, and the bad condition of the roads, there was a full vote polled—much larger than that in August. Mr. Buchanan received a much larger vote than any Democrat ever got here, and the Whig majority has been reduced from 87 to 43, being a Democratic gain of 44 votes.—The young Democrats here got up a procession of about two hundred of the admirers of Mr. Buchanan. The stars and stripes, borne by a gallant Mississippian, floated at the head of the column. But for the College rules, preventing political speeches at the University by the young men, we should have had a number of addresses. If the Democrats elsewhere have done as well as they have here, the State is safe for Buck and Breck by a large majority."

Forsythe.

A friend, sending us the vote of Forsyth, says: "Know Nothingism sickened here when Gov. Reid spoke on Friday, and on yesterday it died." Forsyth has done nobly—a clear gain of 117 votes.

Mecklenburg County.

Below we publish the official vote of Mecklenburg County. It will be observed that the Democrats have gained 57 votes since the Governor's election. The day was rainy and very inclement, but for which fact, no doubt, Buchanan's majority would have been greater. But we are perfectly satisfied with a majority of 458. Well done old Mecklenburg!

It will be seen that the Democracy of Charlotte have done nobly,—gave Buchanan a majority of 301, being a gain since the August election.

Charlotte Democrat.

Davidson.

"Gilmer's maj. in Davidson, says a correspondent, was 376—Fillmore's is 330; showing a gain of 46 votes for Buchanan." Where, oh where is Gen. J. M. Leach? Is this the way "Americans" are to "rule America?" We congratulate the General; and yet we suppose that Mr. Rayner, who was up that way speaking for "Sam," aided the General somewhat in gaining this loss.

Warren.

WARRENTON, Nov. 5, 1856.

"I send you the state of the polls in this County on yesterday. Notwithstanding the inclemency of the day, the Democrats and anti-Know Nothings have covered themselves with glory. But for the rain our majority would been larger."

Nash.

NASHVILLE, Nov. 5, 1856.

"The following is the vote in Nash for President and Vice President: Buchanan 1068, Fillmore 61. The vote for Bragg in August last was 1107, for Gilmer 93. So you see we have fallen off only 7 votes. But for the rain Nash would have given the largest majority she ever gave before. The following is the vote of three precincts:"

Considering the bad weather, Warren, Nash, and Edgecomb have done remarkably well.

Edgecombe.

TARBORO', Nov. 5, 1856.

"I send you the official vote of Edgecombe, as follows; Buchanan 1581, Fillmore 151. Increase over the vote of August, 56. Well done for Edgecombe. If the other Counties have done as well, what a glorious majority we shall roll up for Buchanan. Reports from Pitt give us between two and three hundred majority."

Burke.

MORGANTON, Nov. 4, 1856.

"Wind, rain and high waters beyond what I have witnessed for years, preventing many from getting to the polls. The vote in Morganton is small, and only 28 majority for the K. N's. In August their majority was 70. I think we have carried Burke by a small majority."

Johnston.

SMITHFIELD, Nov. 5, 1856.

"Old Johnston does better at each election. The majority for Buchanan is far above my calculations. The K. N's here are buried deep in their culverts. The vote is, Buchanan 958, Fillmore 619—maj. 339, and a gain of 120."

Lenoir.

KINSTON, Nov. 6, 1856.

"I hasten to send you the official report of the election. We have done well, but our majority would have been larger but for the storm. "Sam" is utterly dead here. I have heard several of the Know Nothings call themselves Whigs since the election. The following is the vote by precincts:"

N. C. Baptist State Convention.

This body convened in the Baptist Church in this City on Wednesday last, and the delegates were called to order and welcomed by the President of the last Convention, Elder Jas. McDaniel. Elder Solomon acted as Secretary.

The time was occupied in preliminary arrangements, and the Convention adjourned to meet in the State Capitol at half past 9 on Thursday morning.

At night, the introductory sermon was preached by Elder J. B. Solomon.

On Thursday, the Convention met in the Capitol. Elder J. McDaniel was elected President, and Elder J. B. Solomon, Secretary. The annual report of the Board of Managers was read, and the usual committees appointed.

Elders Repiton and Tobey brought to the attention of the Convention the subject of a Theological Seminary for the Baptists of the South and Southwest. A Convention in reference to this matter is to be held in Louisville, Ky., in May next, in connection with the meeting of the Southern Baptist Biennial Convention. The delegates to this Convention were appointed and instructed to represent the N. C. Convention in each of these meetings.—These are Elders Bradford, Thorn, Mitchell, Pritchard, Hooper, McDaniel, Skinner, Cansler, Jordan, Tobey, James, Dobson, Wingate, T. H. Prichard, Solomon, Wheeler, and Repiton.

Among the visitors from other States we may mention Elder T. C. Teasdale, D. D. of Washington City; Elder E. Kingsford, D. D. of Alexandria; and Elder A. M. Poindexter, of Richmond, Va.

THE SPLENDID RESULT OF YESTERDAY.—The Democracy of Richmond have covered themselves with new and more brilliant laurels than ever. In a vote, which is only seventy-six less than the vote of last year, the Democrats have increased their vote 311, and have cut down the Know-Nothing majority of 978 to the small pittance of 284. In every Ward the Democracy have done their whole duty. In Jefferson Ward the Democracy, for a large portion of the day, kept ahead, and, at the close of the polls, the Democracy were only beaten eleven votes.

From every portion of the State, that we hear from, the Democracy have gained largely. Our office, until a very late hour last night, was crowded with the exultant Democracy. Rich. Enq.

GOV. WILLARD.—When the Know Nothing rowdies tried to shot down Governor Willard at Lexington, Kentucky, on Wednesday last, the Governor said he could excuse them all; they were only mad with him because he beat an Abolitionists. This reproof, taken in connection with the recommendation of Prentice to the Fillmore men of Indiana to vote for Morton, must have been a very cutting one to all honorable members of the American party. The idea of insulting, in Kentucky, the man who in Indiana beat the fanatic who uttered that famous incendary declation, "that he would rather see the Ohio River flow with blood than that one fugitive slave should be returned!" what can be the matter with Kentukey and Kentuckians, "that such things can be." Cincinnati Enquirer.

ELECTION RIOTS IN BALTIMORE.—It is hardly news to any of readers, that the city was disturbed by the most disgraceful riots during the whole of yesterday. In some part or another from the time the polls opened until they closed, disorder and riot prevailed more or less, and fire arms of every description were freely used. It is equally certain that fraudulent voting was practised almost without restraint and scarcely disguised, while great numbers were deprived of their franchise, either by force and violence at the polls, or intimidation from the reports current of what was going on. The history of the day was a lamentable commentary upon the assumption of the Mayor that he had adopted sufficient measures for the preservation of the peace.—On the countrary authority seemed powerless; disorder soon grew into riot, and riot culminated in bloodshed and slaughter. There was a notorious insufficiency to do any effective thing for the maintenance of order or for the protection of citizens in the exercise of their rights. One person was killed and some fifty others were wounded. Baltimore Sun of Nov. 5th.

KENNETH RAYNER AND JOHN M. BOTTS.—It was well and truly said by a distinguished orator, some weeks ago, that if there were no enemies of the Constitution in the South, there would be few enemies of the Constitution in the North, or else that the latter would be hopelessly and utterly without power. So long as the South is not a united South; so long as there are men in the South who assist to push forward the schemes of sectionalism in the North, so long will there be abolitionists and disunionists in the free States. The course of Kenneth Rayner and John M. Botts proves the justice of these assertions. Both of these gentlemen are now endeavoring to seduce Northern men to vote for John C. Fremont in preference to James Buchanan; but we beg our readers to remember that the one is as weak and contemptible, so far as political influence goes in North Carolina, as is the other in Virginia. Philadelphia Pennsylvanian.

WONDERFUL EFFECT OF THE SPEECHES OF THE "BLUE BLACK REPUBLICANS," JOHN MINOR BOTTS AND HENRY WINTER DAVIS.—In 1855 the Know-Nothings carried Richmond City by 968 majority. Yesterday the Fillmore majority was only 284—being a Democratic gain of six hundred and ninety-four!

Mr. Wise received, last year, only 1,166. The Democratic vote yesterday was 1,475—an increase of the Democratic vote of three hundred and nine!

We understand, also, that several of the Fillmore voters could not stomach Botts, and struck off the name of Elector Botts? Had Mr. Botts made another speech, or written another letter, the Democracy would have carried this "Gibraltar." As it is, it is a perfect Pyrrhus victory for the Know-Nothings, always so jubilant before an election. Where is the thousand majority claimed by the Whig? Where the 1,200 majority claimed by the Fillmore orators the night before the election? Rich. Enq.

FACTS FOR THE CURIOUS.—The moon, when at full, reflects upon the earth only about one three-thousandth part of the light of the sun; and the lunar rays, even concentrated by a powerful lens, and focus directed upon the bulb of a delicate thermometer, do not affect it in the slightest degree; hence the phrase "the pale cold moon," is not only poetically beautiful, but philosophically correct.

The volume of bulk of carbonic acid gas expired by a healthy adult in twenty-four hours is said to amount to 15,000 cubic inches, containing about six ounces of solid carbon. This is at the rate of 137 pounds avoirdupois per annum; and taking the total population of the globe at seven hundred and sixty millions, the amount of solid carbon or charcoal every year produced by the combustion of fires and gas lights, by the decay of animal and vegetable matter, the exhalations from springs, &c., there need be no marvel as to the source whence plants drive their solid or woody material, (which is principally carbon,) seeing that their leaves are specially fitted for the absorption of carbonic acid gas from the surrounding atmosphere.

DR. THOMAS H. DAVIS.—This indefatigable and indomitable friend of Democracy deserves the lasting gratitude of his colaborers in the great cause of the Constitution and the Union for the liberal and praise worthy manner to which he expended his time and labor in getting up and providing for the splendid arrangements on the 31st at Ransom's Bridge. We learn that he spared no pains or expense in preparing for the festival on that occasion.—The beautiful pageant which added so much to the appearance of the delegation from Franklin, we mean the symbols, the Buck, the Cannon, the Carriage, &c., was due to his individual enterprize and public spirit. The truth is, we have known the Doctor for a long period—some thirty years—and we can bear testimony to his undying devotion to the case of Democracy through good report and through evil report, throughout his life. He was invariably stood firm and faithful, amid all the changes of the times. May he long live to enjoy the triumph of his political principles and to diffuse the rich lustre of his example to his countrymen! War. News.

Mitchell's Series of Dissected Maps.

THE UNDERSIGNED ARE PUBLISHING A SERIES of Dissected Maps, to which they would invite the attention of parents, teachers and others.

We have now ready,

Mitchell's Dissected Map of the United States.
" " " " Eastern "
" " " " Middle "
" " " " Southern "
" " " " Western "

The above are made from Mitchell's latest Maps, and although issued only ten weeks since, we are now using the

FIFTH THOUSAND.

We are constantly receiving orders and recommendations from various parts of the United States, and numerous inquiries for them, for Schools and District Libraries, as well as from the trade.

They are neatly put up in book form, and will be found to be instructive as well as amusing for old and young.

The effort required to put them together without the key map, (which should not be referred to) will serve to indelibly impress on the mind the relative locality of the States, as well as their respective boundaries.

WHAT THE PAPERS SAY.

Better for children than a bushel of the dissected pictures gotten up merely for amusement. A child will never tire of these maps, and while he is amusing himself he will be insensibly acquiring a knowledge of the geography of his country.—Zion's Herald.

They combine instruction with amusement, and are admirably calculated to impress on the mind of the young, the locality of the different parts of their own country.—They make study attractive, and a young person will learn more in a single hour's amusement with these maps, than in hours of hard study of the ordinary ones. Phren. Journal.

You cannot teach geography in any way so effectually as by setting the pupil to construct the map from these dissected parts. "Independent."

An agreeable contrivance for blending amusement with instruction. Tribune.

In putting these maps together, which children delight to do, they will learn "geography without a master" and keep as quiet as mice. Home Journal.

Every family should possess this series of maps that the younger members may profitably while away their leisure hours. Nothing can be more useful. Roche'ter Union.

An ingenious device, for teaching geography. Evangelist.

Physic and geography were equally distateful in our youthful days, but sugar coated pills have induced children to cry for the first, and we venture to assert that the ingenious originators of this idea, have rendered the second as attractive. Yankee Blade.

A valuable acquisition to a private library. Presbyterian.

Booksellers and others will find the Dissected Maps to command a ready sale, especially of the United States, and the one of the series that contains their own State.

TRUST SALE

Of Magnolia Salt Sulphur Spring and Farm, and other Estate.

BY VIRTUE OF A DEED OF TRUST EXECUTED by David Jordan to me for the benefit of his creditors generally, and duly recorded in the Clerk's Office of Nansemond County, I shall sell, on THURSDAY, the Fourth day of December next, at Public Auction, on the Premises, the well known "MAGNOLIA FARM," containing 164¾ acres, situated between the Norfolk and Petersburg and the Seaboard and Roanoke Railroads, and accessible to both, but immediately on the latter, thirteen miles from Portsmouth, and four from Suffolk. Also, ninety acres of Woodland nearly adjoining.

On the first named piece of Land is the justly celebrated "MAGNOLIA SALT SULPHUR SPRING," analyzed by one of the first Chemists of the country, and which analysis is said to develop the most rare and valuable alterative and other mineral properties of any Water either in this country or Europe; and its efficacy in many chronic and other diseases, and its unusually healthy location, should attract Capitalists to the merits of this property, for an extensive Eastern Watering Place.

The Proprietor states that the sales of the Water alone, although not introduced generally, beyond a few of the surrounding counties, have been worth $1100 per year, and he thinks by a little enterprise they may reach an amount in a short time that will be of more importance than all other considerations.

The Land is rich in vegetable matter, and underlayed with a rich decomposed shell marl, reaching in some places within four and a half feet of the surface, and the Farm would make one of the best Trucking Farms in the county, from the fact of its fertility and easy access to market.

The improvements will accommodate seventy-five visitors, and are in good order, together with all necessary out buildings. The whole improvements cost at least $5000.

Also, at the same time and place, will be sold all the FURNITURE, of every kind, lately used in the Hotel and Cottages of the place, together with all other chattel Property, to-wit: Corn, Farming Implements, &c., &c. Also, a Negro Woman, a good cook and washer; and a likely Boy, fifteen years old.

For the analysis of the Water, which will be sent by mail in order, or any further particulars, apply to David Jordan, on the premises, or the subscriber in Suffolk, Va. Sale positive.

The title is believed to be good, but selling as Trustee I shall only give a Deed with special warranty.

TERMS—The Farm and Land, one-half at six months and the other half at twelve months, with interest from date, to be satisfactorily secured to the Trustee. The Negroes cash; and the chattel estate at three months, with interest from date. Bond and good security for all sums over $20; that and under, cash.

JNO. R. KILBY, Trustee.

Fencing Academy.

FENCING, THE BEST GYMNASTIC EXERCISE both for men and youths. The subscriber begs leave to inform the public generally that he will open his Salle d'Armes for the ensuing season, where he will give instructions in the art of FENCING, with the small Sword, the Sabre, the Bayonet or Lance, over K. R. WEATHER'S STORE, at old Temperance Hall, Raleigh, N. C.

This graceful, healthful, and useful art has been thoroughly mastered by the subscriber, who was a pupil in one of the celebrated Military Academies in Europe, and he feels confident that those who patronize his Salle de'Armes will always rejoice that they seized the opportunity of becoming acquainted with an accomplishment so elegant, and exercise so conducive to sound and vigorous health, and a means of self-defence so free from the objections urged against other arts practiced with the same view. Where is there a person who can say that under the present circumstances, the knowledge of using weapons is unnecessary? A nation well exercised with weapons is the support—the pride of the country.

Further particulars, as also the best of references, can be obtained by calling at the Bookstore of Mr. W. L. Pomeroy.

The undersigned will commence as soon as he has twelve scholars. Please give your names to Mr. W. L. Pomeroy.

Trustee's Sale.

WAKE COUNTY, N. C.—BY VIRTUE OF A deed of trust to me executed by William J. Clarke, dated 27th of December, 1855, registered in Book XX, pp. 791, 792, records of Wake County, and for the purposes therein specified, I hereby offer for sale one lot, on Newbern St., in the City of Raleigh, purchased by the said Clarke of the Clerk and Master in Equity for Wake County, at a sale under a decree of the Court of Equity, for partition, between the heirs of John C. Stedman, deceased; together with the buildings and appurtenances thereunto belonging,—the same being formerly the residence of the said William J. Clarke. The lot contains an acre, in high cultivation, is free from nut grass, contains many bearing fruit trees, and is situated directly opposite the Bank of the State and the Espiscopal Church in said City, and is about one hundred yards east of the east gate of the Capitol Square. Repairs to the amount of $1000 have been recently put upon the buildings, four in number, including a dwelling house, with six rooms, an office, two kitchens, etc.

Also, by virtue of the same deed, and for the benefit of all concerned, I offer for sale a valuable tract of land, thirty two acres, upon Neuse river, in the county of Wake, with the buildings thereon, known as the Neuse River Oil Mills. Price $4,000. The mill seat sold fifteen years ago to Clarke and Jeffreys for $3,000. Since that time, an entirely new Saw and Oil Mill, with press hullers, heaters, flattening mill, and jumpers, and a new dam, have been erected and added thereto. This property was lately appraised at $5,000.

The object of these sales being mainly a change of investment, I am authorized, upon the money being safely secured, to et it go upon a liberal credit. To any one disposed to locate in Wake, and engage in a lucrative business, the present is a rare opportunity for securing a town residence and a business stand in a populous country neighborhood. They will be sold together or separately, and the title varranted.
